

It's my understanding that several banks have petitioned for an exemption to the Indiana telephone privacy law. I am against watering down the Indiana telephone privacy law. Please do not allow them to ruin this important and valuable law. Please turn down their petition. Just say no.